

Theatre Guild Valdosta

presents

'Dosta Theatre

January 28-31 and February 4-6, 2010

2009-2010 Patrons

You Can't Take It With You

Bob Baldree and Gary Bradley
Grant Brown and Dr. Greg Pye

Golden Boy

Jerry and Kay Jennett

Sugar Baby

Patti Cook	Martha and Mike Dover
Albert Forthe	Sarah Howard
Emily T. Joiner	Alex McFadden
Tom and Sue Miller	Garland Pendergraph
Ed Van Peenan	Wehling Family Foundation

Auntie Mame

Dean Brooks	Pauline Brown
Classic Art and Frame	Joe Cordova
Ed and Mary Crane	Jerry Ellis
Jeff Fulp	Virginia Gilbride
Wendell and Ann Godbee	Guardian Bank
Gerald and Marilyn Henderson	Charles and Nancy Hobby
Cindy Holmes	Larry and Donna Leonard
Dutton Miller	Walter and Liza Newsome
Carla Penny	David Peterson
Ken and Electa Ricket	Judith Schreiber
Phil and Sheryl Stranahan	William Al Turner
Mala Vallotton	Patricia Vigerstol
Lavelle and Lyndal Webb

Sweet Charity

Justin S. Anderson	David Brooks
Donald O. Davis	Raquel Aque England
Martha Gibson	Randy and Celine Gladwin
Karen Gramke	Joanne W. Griner
Harris Guthrie	The Hornkohl Family
Robin McLendon	Jack Newbury
Theo Reed	Jim Rinehart
Carolyn C. Selby	Edith Shepherd
Krista Soutar	Doug and Kimberly Tanner
Andrea Thom	Robert Thom
The Trowell Family	Bryon and Nancy Vance
Mary Helen Watson	Dr. & Mrs. Bolan P. Woodward

Theatre Guild Valdosta

presents

Don't Dress for Dinner

Cast

(in order of appearance)

Bernard	Mitch Parker
Jacqueline	Patti Cook
Robert	Jordan Lewis
Suzette	Rebekah Cordeiro
Susanne	Lindsay Herring
Giorgio	Byron Vance

Setting

The present, just outside of Paris in a renovated barn

Act I Early Evening

15 Minute Intermission

Act II After Dinner

Flash photography and video taping is strictly prohibited.

Produced with permission from Samuel French Ltd.

Crew

Directors	Brenda Kay Brunston Gale Thomas Eger
Producer	Clay Lee
Assistant to the Directors	Byron Vance
Stage Manager	Diane Marie Brunston
Scene Designer	Grant Brown
Scenic Artist	Lindsay M. Herring
Lighting Designer	Lindsay M. Herring
Props Mistress	Lynnette Kenworthy
Stage Crew	Katelynn Kenworthy Kellie Thompson
Light Board Operator	Jessie McKay

Set Construction Crew

Grant Brown, Brenda Kay Brunston, Diane Marie Brunston, Patti Cook, Bill Eger, Gale Thomas Eger, Jerry Ellis, Carl Glasscock, Michael Glasscock, Mary Anne Green, Lynnette Kenworthy, Catherine Lee, Clay Lee, John McCall, Mitch Parker, Pauline Player, Fred Stikkel, Byron Vance, and Mary Helen Watson

Special Thanks

The Valdosta Daily Times, Black Crow Media, VSU Theatre and Dance Department, Fr. Stan White and Alice DeVane

THE COMPANY

Mitch Parker (Bernard) is a native of Sand Rock, AL where he played varsity football. He now makes his home in Moultrie, GA and is an assistant director for the City of Valdosta's Water Department. Parker served with the U.S. Navy virtually eleven years underwater on several nuclear submarines. His interests include classic auto mobile, especially Packards, collecting fine china and flatware, and cooking; which he says must be pursued "with reckless abandon." Don't Dress for Dinner is Mitch's first on-stage appearance.

Patti Cook (Jacqueline) is beginning her 6th season with TGV and is excited to play Jacqueline...ooh-la-la. Her most recent performances were Lavonda in Sordid Lives and Twink in Dearly Beloved. After two roles with a southern drawl, "ze French accent.... Mon Dieu"! She would like to thank Gale & Brenda for this opportunity... and challenge. Patti would also like to thank her friends and family for living through the many hours of line rehearsals and the lapses into Pink Panther French. When not on stage, Patti spends her time teaching mathematics at VSU and serving as Treasurer of TGV.

Rebekah Cordeiro (Suzette) is a recent grad from Emory University in Atlanta and has found herself at South Georgia Pecan Company's quality assurance lab. She was very active at Theater Emory, being seen in roles anywhere from the wino Borachio in Much Ado About Nothing to the fairy queen Titania in A Midsummer Night's Dream, or half of a mirror-image doppelganger from David Ives' Enigma Variations, and even seven different characters in Story Theater by Paul Sills. She is really excited to find a theatre family down in Valdosta and hopes to continue in theatre and acting throughout her life.

Lindsay Herring (Suzanne) is acting in her first show with TGV, but has worked with the Gingerbread Players as Scenic and Lighting Designer for Pinocchio and the upcoming production of The Princess and the Pea. A 2007 graduate of Valdosta State University's Theatre Department in Scenic Design, Lindsay currently works as the Auditorium Manager for the City of Valdosta, is pursuing a Masters in Public Administration and will be returning for a third season with Peach State Summer Theatre as their Scenic Charge Artist. Freelancing as the CADD Specialist and Head of Marketing for South's Finest, LLC, (a local architectural fiberglass fabricator) Lindsay's off-stage work can be seen at Auburn University and she is also a nationally published photographer.

Jordan Lewis (Robert) is a graduate of the Stella Adler Acting Conservatory in New York. Previous roles include; Danny in Danny and the Deep Blue Sea; Don Juan in Much Ado About Nothing, Jed Jenkins in The 5th of July; Banquo in Macbeth; Gaston in Beauty and the Best and Sir Andrew in Twelfth Night. He is currently attending VSU, majoring in Psychology.

Byron Vance (Giorgio) retired from Tallahassee, FL to Lake Park, GA in 2007 and is beginning his fourth season at TGV. He joined TGV to pursue his boyhood passion of acting. Byron studied acting as a child and at the age of 9, hosted Saturday morning children's shows on WCAU TV in Philadelphia, PA. He continued to do several live performances at Abby Playhouse in Philadelphia. He wishes to thank the community for all their support, as well as all the special folks at TGV who've made his retirement so much fun.

Brenda Kay Brunston (Director) has recently re-kindled her relationship with TGV having played Mrs. Rodgers in And Then There Were None and directed Slumber Party for The Gingerbread Players this summer. In the mid-nineties she directed Finishing Touches and The Heiress for TGV while completing her BFA in Theatre Arts at VSU. Brenda earned a MA in Theatre from the University of Houston and has worked in professional theatre in various parts of the country. Currently she teaches 2nd grade at St. John Catholic School and is finishing a Masters in Elementary Education through the University of Phoenix Online. Brenda is delighted to work with her sister, Diane, as a stage manager and thanks the cast and crew for all of their hard work and dedication. Her next role with TGV is to play the Queen in The Gingerbread Players production of Princess and the Pea.

Gale Thomas Eger (Director) has been a professional actress working in regional theatres throughout the country, including a performance at Lincoln Center. Representative roles as an actress include: Maggie in After the Fall, Cherie in Bus Stop, Guinevere in Camelot, Eleanor in Lion in Winter, Sophie in Star Spangled Girl and Madam DuBonnnett in The Boyfriend. She established the Lowndes Off Broadway company in 1985 and took them to 17 Region first place awards and several top slots in State. Her former students have gone on scholarship to the highly respected VSU Theatre department, as well as NYU and Julliard, among other places. Eger retired after 21 years at Lowndes. She is married to her best friend, Bill. As founding members of TGV they are happy to return to the 'Dosta and this fine organization.